ELIZABETH “BEEZIE” MADDEN

Olympic Gold & Bronze Medalist • FEI World Cup™ Jumping Final Champion • Cazenovia, NY

Originally from the Milwaukee, Wisconsin area Beezie Madden has always loved horses. Horses have been a family legacy for her; her parents, Joe and Kathy Patton owned a horse farm in Wisconsin, and for Beezie and her husband John, they operate their stable, John Madden Sales, in Cazenovia, New York. Beezie began competing at the Grand Prix level in 1985.

In April of 2013, Madden won the FEI World Cup™ Jumping Final in Gothenburg, Sweden aboard Abigail Wexner's horse Simon. Madden is only the 5th woman ever to win the FEI World Cup™ Jumping Final. Subsequently, in 2013, Simon was named the 2013 USEF International Horse of the Year. In 2014, Madden became the first woman to win the prestigious King George Gold Cup at Hickstead with Cortes 'C'.

Madden is an Individual Olympic Bronze Medalist and a member of the two gold medal U.S. teams from the 2004 and 2008 Olympic Games where she rode Authentic. In 2006, she won both team and individual silver medals at the FEI World Equestrian Games™ aboard the nearly flawless Authentic. In 2014, Madden returned to the FEI World Equestrian Games™ with Cortes 'C', winning a team bronze and individual bronze. Cortes 'C' was voted "Horse of the Games." Madden was a member of the gold medal winning 2003 (aboard Authentic) and 2011 (aboard Coral Reef Via Volo) Pan American Games US Teams, and an individual silver medalist with Coral Reef Via Volo at the 2011 Pan American Games. She returned for a third and fourth Olympic appearance at the 2012 London Olympics on Coral Reef Via Volo owned by Coral Reef Ranch and the 2016 Rio Olympics aboard Abigail Wexner's Cortes 'C' where she and US team earned the silver medal.

Beezie has 18 wins in Nations Cup competition and 9 World Cup Qualifier wins. In 2018 & 2019 she was the Open Jumper Leading Rider and Leading Lady Rider of the Pennsylvania National Horse Show. In 2002 she came back to win the Grand Prix de Penn National with aboard the legendary horse

Judgement. Other notable finishes include the Million Dollar CN International at Spruce Meadows in Canada aboard Judgement in 2005, and the CN $1,000,000 Grand Prix of Saugerties in 2015. She is a three-time winner of the prestigious Spruce Meadows Atco Power Queen Elizabeth II Cup, winning twice on Authentic and again in 2012 on Simon.
