Junior Hunters Take Center Ring on Opening Day of Junior Weekend

The two classes of Large Junior Hunter 15 and Under were won by Augusta Iwasaki of Calabasas, CA, aboard Lyn Pedersen's Small Affair. Iwasaki, 13, and the 14-year-old Selle Francais gelding claimed both victories with scores of 88 in the Over Fences class and 90 in the Handy round.

Dedication and Emma Kurtz from Hudson, OH, were victorious in the Large Junior Hunter 16-17 Over Fences class with a score of 88 points. Dedication, a 12-year-old bay Holsteiner gelding is owned by Dr. Betsee Parker, who has owned many of the country's top hunters.

The Large Junior Hunter 16-17 Handy class went to Chapman ET and owner/rider Raleigh Hiler from Sudbury, MA. The handsome grey flowed around the course to take the win with a score of 87. Emma Kurtz returned to the winner's circle in the Small Junior Hunter 16-17 Handy class with Enticement owned by Rebekah Warren. The pair garnered a score of 87 for their performance. Kurtz has only been riding the little mare since June, but they have been very successful together.

Annabel Revers and Kingpin © Al Cook Productions

Annabel Revers of Weston, MA, and Kingpin, owned by Beechwood Stables, LLC, won the Small Junior Hunter 16-17 Over Fences class with a score of 88. The pair placed third in the Handy class, putting them in contention for the Championship, which will be awarded on Friday. "Bruno," as he is affectionately called around the barn, and Revers tackled the course, designed by Paul Jewell, quite easily. "My horse actually likes the big shows," Revers has said of her mount. "He likes to feel special."

The Small Junior Hunter 15 and Under title went to Mayfield and Brooke Morin of Los Altos Hills, CA, who rode the gelding to victory for Strasberg Morin Inc. The pair earned a score of 87 points to take the blue ribbon in the class. Brian Moggre, Flower Mound, TX, and MTM Fashion, owned by MTM Farm, were the winners of the Small Junior Hunter 15 and Under Handy class with a score of 89. The pair, who have had quite a bit of success this summer, look to add more accolades to their growing resume.

Competition for these young riders in the Junior Hunter Divisions concludes on Friday.

Junior Jumpers Take the Stage

$15,000 Neue Schule / USEF Prix de States Team Championship and Individual Championships

Tonight's main event features some of the rising stars in the jumper division. Junior jumpers from across the country will compete for their respective zones in an effort to claim that coveted top spot on the podium. Seven zones out of the ten USEF National Zones will be represented. This competition will be run under a modified Nation's Cup format. First, each team will jump one round. The highest score of each team will be dropped to obtain a cumulative team score. The six teams with the least number of cumulative faults will go on to jump a second team round. Teams will return in reverse order of the first round total team scores. The winning team is determined by adding together the jumping and time penalties incurred by the best three competitors of each team in each round. At the completion of the second round if teams are tied for any medal, there will be a jump-off in which ONE competitor, determined by the Zone Chef d'Equipe, will participate. All riders have the opportunity to compete in both rounds for an individual score regardless of team standings. Individuals will compete first in both rounds.

Daisy Farish Celebrates Birthday With Win in the Individual Phase I of the Neue Schule/USEF National Junior Jumper Championship

© Al Cook Productions

Daisy Farish had the best birthday ever! The newly turned 17-year-old resident of Versailles, KY captured the win in the Individual Phase I of the Neue Schule/USEF National Junior Jumper Championship. Riding Alberto II, owned by Stone Ridge Farms, LLC, Farish saved ground at a fast clip to finish with 53.070 seconds in the faults converted into seconds one round speed competition.

"This was definitely a good birthday!" beamed Farish. "My plan was to have a quick, clear round to help me later in the week and just to start off strong. It was a bonus to win the class. It was really great!"

Alexandra Piolet, 15, of Highland Park, Ill. set the mark early going clear in a time of 56.638 on 10-year-old Helene VE, owned by Co-Piolet, LLC, which held up until Farish entered the arena. However, more than half the field of 29 entries were yet to go and Farish was not sure her time would be fast enough.

"There were a lot of opportunities to save time on the turns," said Farish of the Steve Stephens-designed course. "I wasn't sure if my time would hold up. I knew I was pretty fast, but I wasn't sure how fast until I saw some of the top riders go and I still had them by a second or two. I was holding my breath thinking that they had the potential to top me. But I was glad it held up."

Farish had to hold her breath right up until the end. Final rider Hannah Loly, 15, of Rancho Santa Fe, Calif. was a bit of a threat on Ayma De La Demi Lune, going clear in 57.604 seconds for third place.

"I would say that this is one of the biggest results that I have had," said Farish. "I never captured one of these championships and I am really happy with it."

Farish will be competing on the team from Zone 5 in the second phase of the competition, the Neue Schule/USEF Prix de States Team Championship based on a modified Nations Cup format. Each team member jumps two rounds with the best three scores counting for the team total. The team with the lowest score is declared the winner.

"I think my team is really strong this year and we have a good shot at winning," said Farish. "I'm really excited."
