DOVER SADDLERY/USEF HUNTER SEAT MEDAL FINAL

The American Horse Shows Association (AHSA) Equitation Medal was established in 1937 by the fourth President of the AHSA, Adrian Van Sinderen, as part of his strategy to connect horse people across the United States. The original Van Sinderen trophy was awarded to the Junior Equitation rider who accumulated the most points in AHSA Medal classes in a given competition year. At that time, Saddle Seat, Hunt Seat and Stock Seat riders were all vying for one trophy and often riding against one another in the same class. In 1948, the classes were divided into the individual riding disciplines. Van Sinderen had two more trophies made, one for Hunt Seat, and the other for Stock Seat. The Saddle Seat discipline retained the original Van Sinderen Trophy. In 1950, the Medal Final was fashioned into the competition we now know, with qualifying classes and a final to determine the overall winner. The Dover Saddlery/USEF Hunter Seat Medal is a coveted USEF prize and proves to be a significant stepping-stone for international competitions as a great number of the past winners have gone on to represent the U.S. internationally.

The Dover Saddlery/USEF Hunter Seat Medal Final event is comprised of multiple rounds and judged on equitation over a course set at 3'6". All riders compete in the first round of the Dover Saddlery/USEF Hunter Seat Medal Final. Judges select the top riders from round one to move on to compete in round two. The judges then have the option to select a smaller group of riders for further testing to determine the champion.

The intent of the course built for the US Hunter Seat Medal Finals is to ask appropriate questions that allow the riders to demonstrate both their riding skills and their ability to properly school their horse. The questions asked in the first round should be difficult enough to befit a national championship and begin to separate the top riders, but at the same time not overly discourage or tax first time competitors or riders on lesser horses. The questions asked in the second round can be significantly more difficult to separate the highest level of riders competing at this national championship and allow them the platform to truly show off their skills.

Hannah Hoch Gets the Gold in Neue Schule/USEF Junior Jumper Individual Championships

Hannah Hoch and Shariva topped the $10,000 Neue Schule/USEF Junior Jumper National Championship on Saturday, October 16, marking the thrilling conclusion to three days of junior jumper championship competition at the 75th Pennsylvania National Horse Show at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg, PA.

“It’s really an incredible feeling to be rewarded like this after so many years of training and hard work. The list of the riders that are competing here is no joke; there are a lot of experienced riders and a lot of top horses. It’s so rewarding to be able to win at such a prestigious and competitive show.” – Hannah Hoch

Second place and the silver medal went to Natalie Jayne of Elgin, IL, riding Columbcille de Reve, owned by Wembley Farms.

“My horse jumped incredibly. She is just an awesome horse. She goes in the ring and she wants to win every time, and she gives her all. I think that is a great feeling to have in a horse.” – Natalie Jayne

Rounding out the podium positions was Taylor Kraft of Loxahatchee, FL, aboard her own Volt du Thot.

“Going into today, [Volt du Thot] definitely felt like he was at his best. I think it was an unfortunate rail tonight, but he felt great all week and I am really, really happy with how he was.” – Taylor Kraft

The final award of the evening, the William C. Steinkraus Style Award, was presented to Carlee McCutcheon of Aubrey, TX.

Olivia Sweetnam Sweeps Pony Hunters

Following the conclusion of Pony Hunter competition at the 75th annual Pennsylvania National Horse Show in Harrisburg, PA, Olivia Sweetnam may need a new suitcase to carry her ribbons home to Wellington, FL. The 12-year-old rider claimed the Medium Pony Hunter Championship aboard On Your Mark and the Large Pony Hunter Championship with Goldmark, before also ultimately earning the Grand Pony Hunter Championship, the Best Junior Rider on a Pony title, the Pony Rider Sportsmanship Award, and the EMO Agency Junior Hunter High point Award.

Each year, a silent auction raises important funds for the Pennsylvania National Horse Show (PNHS) Foundation and the therapeutic riding and equine rescue organizations that the foundation supports.

This year, the silent auction has gone entirely virtual! To view this year's items, click here, or visit www.PANational.org and select "Silent Auction 2021" under the Foundation dropdown menu.

Here's a look at just some of the many items up for bid this year.

Hollow Brook Wealth Management Introduces New PNHS Junior Sportsmanship Award

Hollow Brook Wealth Management is pleased to sponsor an all-new Junior Sportsmanship Award at this year's Pennsylvania National Horse Show.

The Hollow Brook Wealth Management Junior Sportsmanship Award, was presented on Saturday afternoon, to the junior rider identified by show officials as deserving of such recognition.

In addition to presenting the award recipient with a beautifully engraved trophy bowl, Hollow Brook Wealth Management will also make a donation to the USET International Developing Rider/U25 Fund on the winner's behalf.

"We're thrilled to welcome Hollow Brook as a sponsor of the 75th annual Pennsylvania National Horse Show and to be able to present their Sportsmanship Award here this year," said PNHS Executive Director Susie Shirk. "The USET Foundation component of the award, in addition to the recognition of exemplary sportsmanship, makes it a perfect addition to the show."

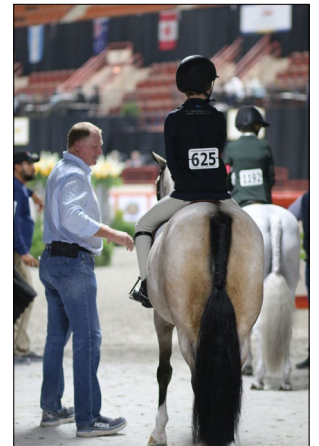

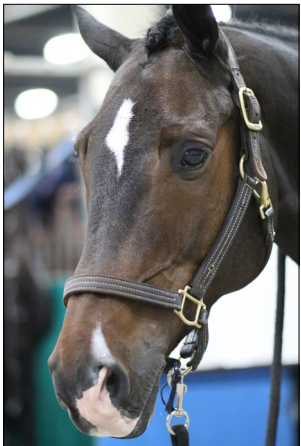

In addition to their sponsorship of the Junior Sportsmanship Award, Hollow Brook Wealth Management is proud to sponsor this year's live stream coverage, available on Horse & Country here.

As a full-service Registered Investment Advisor with more than 100 years of collective experience serving as a trusted fiduciary, wealth management is in Hollow Brook Wealth Management's DNA.

Hollow Brook's leaders, Alan Bazaar and Philip Richter, are also deeply connected to the equestrian world and have extensive experience meeting the unique needs of equestrian athletes and enthusiasts.

FEATURED MEMORY

Do you have your own PNHS memory to share? Email it to Emily at emily@randolph-pr.com to be featured here in the Daily Dose!

Michelle Tomasini - In 2018, I entered Brittany Sommer's OTTB and was accepted in the Green Hunter 3'. Jackpot Lady stood 15.2 hands, raced 22 times and was purchased for $1. While she was always by far the smallest in the division, she always gave her all when it came to her jumping form. We put in a decent course until the last line when my amateur riding abilities got in the way, and I didn't get a clean lead change. I was still thrilled to be offered the opportunity to compete at Indoors.

I hoped to get another shot at the big time, but sadly the following year we had to make the tough decision to euthanize her during colic surgery. I will always cherish my memories of riding Lady at the PA National!
