Rodrigo Pessoa and Venice Beach are Victorious

Brazil's Rodrigo Pessoa and Venice Beach kicked off the Open Jumper competition at the 2022 Pennsylvania National Horse Show with victory in the $10,000 1.45m Speed Challenge on Wednesday, October 19.

Pessoa and the 13-year-old Hannoverian mare, owned by Artemis Equestrian Farm LLC, were one of 36 entries to take on the speed track set by course designer Anderson Lima. As the third pair to enter the ring, Pessoa and Venice Beach laid down a lightning-quick time of 54.583 seconds that would go untouched through the remainder of the class.

Coming the closest – but still nearly two seconds off of Pessoa's time – was Adam Sklansky who stopped the clock in 56.49 seconds aboard his own Hakini. Rounding out the top three with a time of 57.03 seconds was Olympic gold medalist McLain Ward aboard First Lady, owned by Robin Parsky.

"It was a good first indoors, classic course," said Pessoa, who is no stranger to the PNHS, having won the Grand Prix de Penn National on two occasions. "Everything comes up pretty quickly, and you have to adjust your reflexes a little bit from the outside arenas. Anderson Lima's a very good course designer, very experienced. This is a place that I've always liked to come and compete. The facility is always really nice, and it's great to be back here."

Pessoa has had the ride on his winning mount for several years and can always count on her in situations like Wednesday's featured jumper class.

"She's a very competitive, very fast horse," said Pessoa. "She's always ready to go and great to have."

Also earning a victory on Wednesday evening was Ireland's Christian Coyle riding his own Locato Van Het Kapelhof. The pair topped the $10,000 1.30m Speed with a winning time of 53.53 seconds. Taking both second and third place was Laura Chapot riding Gideon and C&C Willow, respectively.

The show jumping competition continues throughout the week, with featured events including:

- Thursday - $15,000 1.30m Welcome Stake beginning at 6:45 p.m.
- Thursday - $30,000 Beyaert Farm 1.45m-1.50m Grand Prix at 8:30 p.m.
- Friday - $30,000 Alltech Liferforce 1.30m Grand Prix at 6 p.m.
- Saturday - $100,000 Grand Prix de Penn National, presented by Forrester Farm Equipment, at 7 p.m.

HORSE SHOW FOUNDATION

Since 1999, proceeds from the Pennsylvania National Horse Show have directly benefitted the Pennsylvania National Horse Show Foundation. The 501(c)(3) tax-exempt non-profit organization provides support for therapeutic riding and equine rescue programs and makes grants exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. As part of the foundation's efforts, the horse show also hosts the LifeVac Therapeutic Riding Championships each year, with this year's championships coming up on Friday, October 21.

Sit Back and Relax in the ThermoEQ Lounge

Take a break and enjoy the expansive Show Office Lounge, sponsored by ThermoEQ. The lounge offers several soft sofa areas, tables and multiple flatscreen TVs to enjoy a live view of the ongoing competition as well as live television.

ThermoEQ stemmed from a passion for animals - horses especially - and a desire to prevent tragedy. After hearing countless stories involving equine-related fires and accidents, the founders of ThermoEQ determined to provide a solution. Using THIA by PROTENG®, an environmentally friendly automatic heat suppression and detection device, the company has created a new way to minimize damage by extinguishing fire in its initial stage. ThermoEQ's mission is to provide the best service possible while keeping safety as a number one priority. Learn more at ThermoEQ.com.

Congratulations to Devon Zebrovius and Tortuga, this year's Ladies Side Saddle champions! Zebrovius and Tortuga, owned by Brenda Madison, topped three out of the four offered Side Saddle classes to take the tricolor on Wednesday.

JUMPERS!

The PNHS Silent Auction directly benefits the PNHS Foundation and the therapeutic riding and equine rescue programs that it helps support. To view this year's silent auction items, scan the QR code or browse a selection of items on display in the main lobby across from the horse show office.
