Champions Crowned in the NAL Children's Hunter and the NAL Adult Hunter Finals

Abigail Gordon and Delightful won the North American League (NAL) Children's Hunter Final, and Betty Oare with Sidenote won the NAL Adult Hunter Final held during the 2019 Pennsylvania National Horse Show (PNHS).

Gordon, 13, from Charlotte, NC, and Delightful, owned by Sloan Lindemann-Barnett, took home the blue ribbon and the Laura Palmer Picket Memorial Perpetual Trophy in the $12,500 North American League Children's Hunter Final.

In the first round, the pair earned the highest score of 87. The last horse-and-rider combination to ride in the callback, Gordon and Delightful, lovingly called "Smooch," bested their first score earning an 88 in the second round to decisively take the win with a final score of 175.00.

A new partnership, Gordon remarks on the connection she has with "Smooch." "Every time I ask him (Delightful) to do something, he tries. He always relies on me, and we trust each other. The main part is that I have fun on him."

With an all-star support team behind them, Gordon and "Smooch" look forward to transitioning out of the ponies. "I ride with Ashland Farm. I'm glad I ride with them because we are all a team, we support each other. I can't thank my trainers enough," said Gordon. "This is my first time not doing ponies. It was my first time doing the horse in the three-foot class. I was nervous because I wanted to do well, and I just took a deep breath and told myself just to have fun."

New York native Alexa Lignelli and Pop Rocks, owned by Piccolino Farm LLC, were reserve champions with an impressive final score of 171.00. Lignelli also rode Resonate, owned by West Hill, for a fourth-place finish after improving their first round by eight points for a final collective score of 164.00. Rounding out the top three in the championship was Sally Ives of Durham, NC, with her own Bender. The pair made the podium on a final score of 167.00.

The $12,500 North American League Adult Hunter Final Championship was awarded to Betty Oare of Warrenton, VA, and Emo Stables' Sidenote. Sidenote, affectionately called "Ted" in the barn, skyrocketed to the top of the leaderboard in the first round with a score of 86. Enjoying the moment, and the crowd of friends surrounding the in-gate, Oare and "Ted" galloped around the ring in the final test leaving nothing to chance. Their second and final score of 89.00 confirmed them as the 2019 North American League Adult Hunter Final Champion and recipient of the Lisa. A.H. Cudahy Perpetual Trophy.

"I think NAL is a wonderful organization and to have a nice class in today's Adult, it was a darn good class," said Oare. "Most that came back were in the 80's, lots of quality. People aim for that (high score), it's not just the 'here comes the adults' class."

"This horse (Sidenote) has given me a lot of confidence to jump. I'm just lucky to have him," said Oare.

Reserve went to Peggy McNeil (Cream Ridge, NJ) and her own For Ever with a final score of 171.00. Kathryn Sanders of Charlottesville, VA, aboard Falcon, owned by The Barracks, came in third with a final score of 168.60.

Horses and Hounds Star in Hunt Night

Members from eight registered Hunts from all across Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia came together with their horses for friendly competition Monday night at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show (PNHS). As no Hunt Night is complete without foxhounds, the members and hounds of the Kimberton Hunt entertained the crowd with a demonstration of how foxhounds work together as a pack.

The Hunt Teams competition saw 13 teams vie for the title in a class where three riders from the hunt follow each other over a course of obstacles and then jump in unison over the last fence. Emerging victorious to claim the Potomac Hunt Challenge Trophy was Elkridge Harford Hunt Team 1, made up of Ashton Williams' Champagne Chic and Peace Party, along with Lambert Boyce's Respectful Ed.

Taking the blue ribbon and the Max C. Hempt Perpetual Trophy in the Field Hunters – Riders 35 & Under class was Samantha Schiff aboard Try It Again of the Bull Run Hunt. Coming in first for the Field Hunters – Riders 36 & Over class, and winning the Chairmans Perpetual Trophy, was Billy Frederik and Chasin Charlie, also of Bull Run.

In the Gentleman's Hunter Under Saddle, John Wilkowski and Westwood of Mr. Stewart's Cheshire Foxhounds came out on top to earn the blue and the Rose Tree Perpetual Trophy.

Elizabeth Rock of the Bull Run Hunt won the Ladies' Hunter Under Saddle aboard Newsroom and received the Betty Baldwin Meister Memorial Perpetual Trophy. Rock was also awarded the "Polly" Gingrich Caswell Perpetual Trophy as the Leading Lady Rider.

Hunt Night culminated with the awarding of the Ralph A. Alfano Memorial Perpetual Trophy, which is given to the hunt that acquired the most points throughout the night. This year, the trophy was presented to Bull Run Hunt, earning ribbons in every class for a total of 32 points.
